- Being the Best Wife I Can Be

Making my relationship with my husband everything I can... how to be the helpmate God designed us to be.

- Religious and Over-Committed?

Beware of being religious and overcommitted to the church so that we don't have time to grow a personal relationship with Christ. Very effective in a garden party format in the Spring where we can celebrate God's harvest and the opportunity to begin reaping what has been prepared for us.

- Real Beauty of Women

Biblical vs. legalistic views of women (dress, hair, make-up, jewelry). Especially interesting in a slumber party or make-over party format. Will focus on the most beautiful attributes/characteristics that would be God's priorities.

- Salt and Light of the World

Lori Hope has been given a gift of teaching and service, sharing discipleship programs and celebrating fellowship with women from Georgia to Mexico. Lori enjoys focusing on our day to day lives and concentrating on how God wants to make each day better. Most notably, she is known for her ability to explore and teach Biblical principles to improve our personal lives including marriage, family life, church life, and growing God's kingdom.

From the age of 8, Lori accepted Christ and had a loving Godly family that was instrumental in her relationship with Christ. She has worked as a Paramedic, Administrator, and Real Estate Agent, but most of all enjoys her job as a mom. Lori and her husband (an ordained minister) Chad, have a son (Andy, age 3 - born December 21) and daughter (Camryn, age 7 - born December 23), both considered Christmas gifts straight from Heaven. Lori is thankful for the opportunity to encourage and teach women how to start at home with their husband, children, and inner-circle of influence expanding into the community, allowing others to see Christ in and through them.
